The nomination of a county ticket was postponed.

EUROPEAN NEWS.

By Cable to the News.

LONDON, May 25.—The Cabinet Council held long sessions yesterday and to-day. The prospect for peace is certainly brighter to-day than for some time. The Czar is resolute in regard to the retrocession of Bessarabia, but has made considerable advances in regard to the limits of Bulgaria. There need be no surprise if Russia, under pressure, consents to reduce the indemnity one half, or even more.

VIENNA, May 25.—Montenegro has assured Count Andrassy she intends to keep peace, and her attitude will be strictly defensive.

CONSTANTINOPLE, May 25.—The fire among the buildings of the sublime Porte proves to have been the work of an incendiary, one and half a million dollars deposited there was lost.

LONDON, May 25.—A special dispatch from St. Petersburg reports that three army corps have been ordered to Finland where a considerable force is concentrating.

The government has ordered, in event of war, that all cruisers shall be manned by regular seamen and marines.

The Vienna correspondent of the Times telegraphs: The hopeful disposition in political circles increases, especially in St. Petersburg and Berlin, where there have been an active interchange of ideas between Austria and Great Britain, which there is every reason to believe has by this time led to a pretty perfect understanding between them, so that Russia, by coming to an understanding with England, will also agree with Austria.

The Daily Telegraph has the following from Vienna: The plan under consideration here and at the Porte for the joint Austro-Turkish occupation of Bosnia and Herzegovina, Austria awaits the sanction of the Porte and the powers before taking any step. One object of the occupation would be to check the ambitious designs of Servia and Montenegro.

International stock have suddenly become very flat on the Stock Exchange in consequence of a rumor of a split in the British Cabinet. The rumor is not traceable to any reliable source. The Cabinet meets to-day for the further consideration of Count Schouvaloff's proposals.

The Times' leading editorial this morning, referring to the interview with Count Schouvaloff, the Russian Ambassador, with Lord Salisbury, Foreign Secretary, and the subsequent Cabinet Council, expresses the opinion that there is legitimate ground for the favorable impression which everywhere prevails, respecting the results of Count Schouvaloff's mission.

The Journal de St. Petersburg, referring to the insistence of London papers on the acceptance by Russia of the British formula of submitting the entire treaty to the Congress, says: If there is a serious desire that the Congress should meet, and we hope it will meet, the formula will easily be found. If, unfortunately, it should not meet, it is not a question of formula which will have prevented it In a very short time the world will know what to think about matters.

The Russo-Turkish Commission, which it was reported in a dispatch from Constantinople yesterday, had failed to agree upon the line of demarcation between the Turkish and Russian forces consisted of Russian and Turkish corps commanders appointed at General Todleben's suggestion to fix a new line of demarcation, and make new regulations for the better preservation of peace in the present dangerous proximity of the armies. The Russian and Turkish soldiers, where the lines are in contact, fraternize cordially, and no trouble is apprehended despite the failure of the commission to agree, but it was thought advisable to have the lines further apart and with more precise regulations.

The health of the Russian troops is improving.

FORTY-FIFTH CONGRESS.

By Telegraph to the News.

WASHINGTON, May 25,—General Gibson's bill appropriating $183,000 for repairing and conducting the New Orleans Mint, which passed the House and is now pending in the Senate is likely to become a law. Secretary Sherman will not oppose it.

SENATE—Sargent, of California called up the concurrent resolution declaring that the provisions of the existing treaty between the Empire of China and the United States in allowing unrestricted emigration to this country from China, might wisely be modified so as as to subserve the best interest of both governments, and inviting the attention of the Executive to the subject. Passed.

Vance, of N. C. from the Committee on coinage, weights and measures, reported a bill authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to constitute superintendents of the mints or assayers in assay offices of Assistant Treasurers of the United States. Passed.

Army bill resumed.

No quorum of the Committee on Elections and Privileges to-day, and the opening of the Butler-Corbin contest was postponed.

No Southern nominations and no confirmations.

SENATE—The Senate discussed the District Government bill to adjournment. The bill has been amended so as to render an election unnecessary.

Senator Lamar replied briefly to Senator Johnson's address before the Senate Railroad Committee yesterday.

HOUSE—The army appropriation bill occupied the House all day in Committee of the Whole and progressed to the end of the bill, when an amendment was offered as an additional section, transferring the management of Indians to the War Department. After a long discussion on the point of order the Chairman, (Springer, of Illinois), decided the amendment to be in order. Without voting on the amendment, however, the House adjourned.

The Governor-General of Canada on the Fenian movement.

By Telegraph to the News.

MONTREAL, May 25.—At a dinner to-night the Governor-General made a speech, in which he characterized the Fenian rumors and demonstration as mere celtic effervescents. He would not say a word against his fellow-citizens, who he had ever found ready to welcome him as the representative of the Queen or in an individual capacity; he admitted that in the past Ireland had not been properly treated, but for centuries the sister Island had endeavored to redress those grievances; he did not think the Fenian movement would amountto anything, but if it did it must be severely repressed.

Hon. A. M. Waddell the Recipient of a Testimonial.

By Telegraph to the News.

WASHINGTON, May 25.—An elegant company assembled at Arlington last night to witness the presentation to Hon. A. M. Waddell, of North Carolina, of a handsomely embossed testimonial from the Postoffice Aid Association, of New York, as a token of appreciation of his lecture on Morse and Maury, delivered recently for their benefit. Mr. Waddell, and others, made speeches at the reception and presentation. This memorial was presented to Mr. Waddell, the donors say, as a token of their appreciation of him as a man, irrespective of political considerations, though the speeches overflowed with expressions of love for the Union.

Russians in Philadelphia.

By Telegraph to the News.

PHILADELPHIA, May 25.—Six accredited agents of the Russian Government reached this city from New York late Thursday night, and are now occupying the best rooms at the Guys Hotel. They are accompanied by interpreters as they do not speak English. They visited Cramps ship yard to-day and inspected the preparations on the State of California, and the steamer Columbus. It is said they will visit Roaches ship yard at Chester to-morrow. They keep very quiet, and refuse to talk or allow the Interpreters to say a word.

Bank Statement.

By Telegraph to the News.

NEW YORK, May 25.—Bank statement loans increase seven-eighth millions; specie decrease 3½ millions; legal tenders increase three million; deposits decrease ⅔ million; reserve decrease $24,100. The Banks hold 14½ millions in excess of legal requirements.

Details of the Tornado.

By Telegraph to the News.

WASHINGTON, May 25.—Details of the tornado come in slowly; it was particularly severe in Wisconsin. The fatalities reported reach about fifteen.

VANCE IN THE WEST.

AGala Day for Newton--Rutherford College Commencement.

Piedmont Press.

The closing exerciaes of Catawba High School, of Newton, took place last Tuesday. It had been previously announced that Gov. Vance would deliver a literary address and at an early hour the town was crowded with hacks, wagons and buggies filled with people—all come to hear their great favorite Z. B. Vance. He entered the rostrum about 11 o'clock and spoke at considerable; length; still the large audience, about 2,000people, did not grow weary. The majorpart of his address was upon the great importance of a practical education. Every sentence was well chosen, and delivered eloquently and in his own social and pleasing style. The presence of such a large crowd demonstrated to the Governor that the people of Catawba do not onlyhold him in regard as politician, but that they look to him as one who is able to do much towards forwarding the educational interest of our State. His advice to young men relative to educating themselves with some object in view was indeed good, and infact every word was well directed, and surely there is not a single person who heard the address, but was benefitted by it.

The closing exercises of Rutherford College took place Wednesday, Rev. G. B. Wetmore, of the Episcopal church, preached the annual sermon.

The whole exercises were well attended and passed offin an agreeable manner. The crowning event of the occasion was the address of Governor Vance, which was delivered Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock The college buildwas crowded to its utmost capacity and the audience gave him undivided attention for one and a half hours: All were much pleased at his remarks upon the educational interest of our State and we think many will be benefitted by the new life he infused in this direction. Our people are beginning to see that our noble Governor is a man upon whom we can rely in fostering education in our State as well as being a faithful and fearless advocate of political economy and retrenchment in State and national affairs.

Dr. George Kirkman, of Chatham county, has a gray horse 37 years old. He has owned him 31 years, and rode him in the practice of his profession nearly all the time.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

From our own Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, May 24, 1878.

The various appropriations bills have engrossed the attention of Congress during the past week. The progress that has been made warrants the opinion that Congress can adjourn by the middle of June, if it only will. It may be assumed as certain that there will be no Tariff or Railroad legislation, at the present session, so that, really little remains to be done beyond the passage of the appropriation measures and prompt action (too long withheld) on many private claims of merit.

You will observe that I leave out of consideration the investigation to be made by the Electoral-Fraud Committee. I do so, for the reason that these investigations are destined to have a very wide scope and range—both here, and, through Sub-Committees in the States affected—and that it is therefore, manifestly impracticable to conclude them within any short or prescribed time. You have, of course, seen the letter of Jno. Sherman, Secretary of the Treasury, to Mr. Potter, the Chairman of the Committee, demanding to be heard by counsel and putting in a bold denial of the charges against him. This is nothing more than the culprits' usual plea of "not guilty" or the conscious criminals' indignant disclaimer, with this difference, that "honest John" assumes to dictate to the Court the method of the inquisition. This communication will receive all the consideration to which it is entitled,—"only this and nothing more." It is a well-known fact, in political circles here, that though the Republican members of the House resorted to disorganizing proceedings of obstruction, to defeat the investigation, for the sake of party capital and in order that they might re-erect the standard of "Revolution," etc., the leaders of that party,—such men as Conkling, Blaine, Butler and Howe,—are secretly pleased that the inquest is to be held, and whatever the disclosures, so far as they may implicate Hayes or Sherman, they will not stir the lachrymal glands of these gentry very profoundly. The platform just laid by the Pensylvania Democracy, in which they endorse the creation of the Committee and declare for a thorough investigation of the electoral frauds of 1876, and the punishment of the criminals, but disapprove any attack upon the Presidential title, embodies the sentiment, I am entirely confident, (and my means of information are by no means inconsiderable,) of nine-tenths of the Democrats of either House of Congress.

The restoration to the Army bill, which cut down that institution to a standard of 20,000 men, of the feature to leave it at its present strength, (of 25,000 men,) is to be deprecated. It is a lamentable fact that, in perhaps a majority of cases, it seems to be impossible to consolidate the Democratic strength in favor of important measures. In this case, the defection of the Democratic members from California, Colorado and Texas, where frontiers and territory are liable to incursions from Mexicans or Indians, defeated the decrease.

The importance which has been given, in all the debates on the Army bill and on incidental questions, to the labor organizations, developments and movements in the country, is highly significant. On the one part, they have been stigmatized as the out-cropping of a Communistic and agrarian spirit, whose aggressive demonstrations may yet demand the repressive power of a large army. On the other they have been extolled as the manly, natural and indignant protests of the hard-handed sons of toil against the grinding and merciless exactions of capital and of rings and monopolies. The truth probably lies between the two extremes. While there is, undoubtedly, in the country at large, but especially in the great centres, a large and most mischievous and dangerous element, of European spawnage, that would break down the barriers of society and advocate a division of property,—men too worthless to work and impatient of the restraints of civilized control,—there is, undoubtedly, much in the legislative tendencies of the times, much in the over-shadowing and pitiless influence of rich corporations, much in the financial stringencies that have prevailed for now so many years, to create a just indignation and discontent among a very large portion of the land, who want to work, without the chance of employment or remunerative wages when employed. This element is destined to become a public factor in future elections in this country, and the politicians, accordingly, on either side, will be throwing out the "tub" to the political "whale" very vigorously. If the effect shall be to promote the efforts and advance the interests of honorable labor,—and all labor, with honest ends in view is honorable,—it will be well; though there is danger here, too, of running into demagogical and discriminating class legislation on the other extreme.

Ben Butler made a good hit, a few days since, in the course of a characteristic speech. He said that the "Claims Commission" had "discovered enough loyal men in the South to have crushed the rebellion, if they had sat down on it." This is precisely so. It is astonishing, in looking over the record, to see the number of men, preferring war-claims against the government for property destroyed by the Union forces in the South, during the war, who swear to their "loyalty" and the utter absence of any act "giving aid or encouragement to the rebellion." In very many cases, these men simply perjure themselves and gain nothing by the murder of conscience. I wot of several, who have whined "loyalty" before the Commission, who, though they never shouldered a musket, were terrible fellows for killing Yankees, in theory, at cross-roads or on street corners.

The annual report of the Board of Health of the District of Columbia, submitted to Congress, makes a remarkable statement as to the respective annual mortality of whites and blacks in the City of Washington. The percentage is only 18.27 of whites to 44.50 of blacks—an extraordinary exhibit. And, perhaps there is no place in the country where fuller provision is made for the negro than here in the National Capitol, where he has been regarded as the word of nation. The contrast disclosed suggests an interesting problem for political economists and vital statisticians.

An eminent clergymanof the Protestant Episcopal Church has recently affirmed that Protestantism is declining and that religious drift of the time is in two directions,—one, towards materialism, skepticism, rationalism, infidelity so called in its various forms; the other towards the old Church of Rome. If Protestantism is declining, if the foundations of belief are disturbed, if unsettlement is exposing the coming generation to the perils of irreligion, is it not possible that the defects of the pulpit, itself, are responsible, to a great extent, for the alleged eclipse of faith? Certainly, we have had one illustration here to the point during the week past. Memorial exercises were held at the Metropolitan (Northern Methodist) Church over the killing of the chisolms in Mississippi; by the "ku klux," some three years ago. Bishop Haven preached a political harangue, full of the doctrine of hate, in which he indulged in the most bloody and bright utterances. and took occasion to nominate Grant for the Presidency in 1880! He declared that what we needed was,—not the gospel of the Savior, nol the mild doctrines and precepts of christianity, not the law of mildness, peace, toleration and good will,—but an iron and mailed hand at the head of a centralized Government! ROUND DANCING REBUKED.

Virginia Episcopal Council Deplores and Denounces It.

In the Virginia Episcopal Council, lately in session at Lynchburg, Professor Samuel D. Davis, of Richmond College, was appointed legal adviser for the diocese. The subject of diocesan missions was resumed, and about $3,000 pledged by the several parishes The committee to whom was referred the question of assistant bishops presented a report recommending that the matter be postponed until next council, and the report was adopted. The committee appointed to consider all property questions relating to the diocese of West Virginia and Virginia presented a report and resolution donating $5,000 to the West Virginia diocese, the latter diocese relinquishing all claim to the property of the old diocese. After a long discussion the report was recommitted. St. George Church, Fredericksburg, Va., was selected as the next place of meeting of the council.

In the council, on Saturday, Bishop Whittle delivered an elaborate annual address, in which he earnestly deprecated the evils of round dancing. After quoting the late Bishop Johns's protest against round dancing, Bishop Whittle says:

"I will not discuss its character and consequences, for while St. Paul wrote to the Church in Ephesus that it was a shame even to speak of those things which were done by some in secret, I should feel ashamed even to speak as the truth would require of this thing, which is done openly, before all. I will only say that I trust no man or woman will be presented for confirmation who means to continue to participate in this abomination, and if the ministers of the Church have no authority to discipline communicants as notorious evil-doers who practice it, surely this council should not fail to clothe them with such authority by canon."

This portion of the address was referred to a committee, which reported a canon forbidding the holy communion and confirmation to persons who habitually indulge in round dancing. Under the rules it required a two-third vote to pass it at this session, and the canon was defeated. Resolutions were, however, adopted deploring the sinful practice, and urging that it be discontinued by all good members of the Episcopal Church.

Sherman's Audacity.

Mr. John Sherman has written a remarkable letter to Hon. Clarkson N. Potter, chairman of the select committee to investigate the electoral frauds, being a response to the general charges contained in the preamble of the resolutions under which the committee was created. When the late Mr. Tweed was first confronted with his accusers and arraigned for his crimes, he disgusted the public by his arrogant inquiry: "What are you going to do about it?" But, bold and brazen as Tweed was on the threshold of his trial, John Sherman fairly outdoes him in sheer impudence and daring effrontery.

Mr. Sherman imagines that his only hope is in cowing the Potter committee at the outset. He has run at large so long and has ridden rough-shod over so many obstacles by the momentum of his cheek, that he undoubtedly imagines he can turn his old tactics to good account in this new complication. But he may as well lay that flattering unction away from his soul. The committee to which he addresses his impudent file of instructions is not made up of the breed of congressional cattle whom he has been accustomed to crack his whip over. None of his old partners and none of his numerous cousins or brevet brothers-in-law are on that committee. On the other hand, it is made up of men who will hew to the line of his crimes, let the chips fall where they may.

We can assure him that his days are numbered. He may consider himself exceptionally lucky if, at the conclusion of the pending proceedings, he is still at large and permitted to enjoy his ill-gotten gains in untrammeled private life. But if be keeps on as he has begun, arousing the resentment and exasperating the spirit of his bearing under trial; he will be very likely to meet with a fate not dissimilar is harshness to that which befel his lately deceased prototype in Ludlow street jail.

KERCHNER vs. GRAINGER.

What Mr. Grainger's Denial Amounts To.

Correspondence of the News.

WILMINGTON, N. C. May 23.

Mr. Isaac B. Grainger denies that within the two months previous to the 17th inst. he "testified in conversation to the ability, zeal and faithfulness" of Col. Waddell in the matter of the river and harbor appropriations, and that he expressed himself at the time "as perfectly satisfied that Waddell was doing a good work there."

My informant was F. W. Kerchner, Esq., than whom no gentleman in this city is more widely or favorably known, and Mr. Kerchner, having been the party of the other part in the conversation referred to, authorized in the interests of truth the use of his name if the statement should be questioned.

It has been denied by Mr. Grainger. And now the issue is, F. W. Kerchner vs. Isaac B. Grainger.

It is not necessary for me to say anything more. CAPE FEAR.

THE ATLANTA CONFERENCE.

Specially Reported for the News.

ATLANTA, GA., May 24.

THE LAST DAY.

The Conference convened this morning at 9 a. m. Bishop Kavanaugh presided. At the afternoon session on yesterday the following General Conference officers were elected:

THE NEW BOOK AGENT.

Dr. J. B. McFerrin was elected Book Agent on the second ballot by a good large majority. Dr. McFerrin is a native of Tennessee. He has been a minister since 1825. He was editor of the Nashville Christian Advocate for 14 years; was Book Agent once before, in 1858; was Missionary Secretary for 12 years, and now is Book Agent again. He is to have a layman as co-agent, to be elected by the Book Committee. He will, no doubt, make a good officer.

THE NEW EDITOR.

Dr. O. P. Fitzgerald, of California, was elected editor of the Nashville Christian Advocate. Dr. Fitzgerald is a native of North Carolina. He was born in Caswell county, N. C., in 1829. He went to Georgia from North Carolina, where he entered the ministry in 1853, and soon thereafter he removed to California, where he has resided for the last twenty-three years. For ten years he was editor of the Pacific Methodist and Christian Spectator, organs of the church and papers of wide circulation and large influence. He has been the nominee of the Democratic party for Superintendent of Public Instruction in California in 1862, and was elected to that office in 1867, and served in that responsible office for four years. The degree of D. D. was conferred on him in 1868 by the Southern University. Dr. F. is a learned, affable man, and will make a most excellent editor. We congratulate the church on his election.

THE NEW MISSIONARY SECRETARY.

Dr. A. W. Wilson, of Baltimore, Md., was elected Missionary Secretary. He is an able man, so represented. He practiced law awhile before entering the ministry, and is very popular and prominent in his Conference.

Dr. W. G. E. Cunningham was re-elected Sunday School editor, and was so elected by acclamation, which is very good evidence that he is the right man in the right place. Dr. C. is a native of Tennessee, and for ten years was a missionary to China, and for several years was a professor in Martha Washington College, of Virginia.

Dr. T. O. Summers was elected Book Editor. He is now professor in Vanderbilt University, and has for a long time been editor of the Nashville Christian Advocate, and Book Editor.

THE LAST DAY.

The last day was spent in fiuishing up the business; a great many reports were taken from the table and acted upon. The law in regard to the election of delegates to the General Convention was so changed that one delegate shall be elected for every thirty-six members of an Annual Conference—it has been for every twenty-eight heretofore. The Board of Missions was elected and the Book Committee appointed.

Nashville, Tenn., was chosen as the place for holding the next General Conference.

OUR NEXT BISHOP.

Bishop Pierce will preside over the next session of the North Carolina Conference, to convene in Charlotte, N. C., Nov. 27th, 1878. The question, "Are you in debt so as to embarrass you?" is to be asked every young preacher who joins an Annual Conference hereafter. R.

P. S.—Conference adjourned sine die this afternoon. I am sorry you have failed to get a few of my letters. It is due you and due me to state that they have been sent daily. The mail is to blame for their non-reception by you. R.

Crops in Chatham.

Correspondence of the News.

CHATHAM COUNTY, N. C., May 16th, 1878.

We have had remarkably fine weather this spring for preparing land and planting. The farmers are making a good start with their crops; not much cotton planted in this section this year. The wheat crop in this locality looked well and promised fair until within the last few weeks, but it seems to be falling back just now. The rust is injuring it, and the cool nights seem to have a bad affect. There will be a good crop of peaches this summer; not much other fruit. A great many apple trees failed to bloom

Politics are being stirred some. I do not know yet when our county convention will be held. I think the people in this part of the county at least, would like to see Merrimon returned to Congress.

There seem to be a great many candidates for the nominations this year.

The name of the aspirants for sheriff is legion, with the chances in favor of the present incumbent.

Some of our people are getting stirred up in consequence of the late homestead decision. BONA.

COMMERCIAL TOURISTS.

Views of the Merchants of Wilson.

A representative of the NEWS called upon several of the principal merchants of Wilson, on Friday last, to ascertain their views upon the proposed tax of $500 on drummers:

Palmer & Green, dealers in hardware and farming implements, said: We are opposed to any increase of tax on drummers. Merchants are not compelled to buy from them; and yet we regard them as a great convenience. They show samples, and frequently sell at lower rates. We say let the tax remain as it is.

Branch, Hadley & Co., general dealers in dry goods, groceries, farmers supplies etc. The Senior member was not in, another member of the firm said: "I am in favor of $1,000 tax, and I hope the legislature will impose the tax." While the other member said: "I see no good reason for an increase of tax, the drummers are of great benefit at times and then they bring into the State a great deal of money."

M. Rountree & Co., dealers in all classes of merchandise, except liquors: "We think the present tax of $50 quite enough. If Northern merchants are willing to go to the expense of sending out drummers and taking risks, let them do so. To small merchants who are not able to meet the expenses of a trip north the "drummer" is of great benefit. Let the tax remain as it is." Mr. Rountree added, "I think it would be infinitely better for the northern merchants to send each of their customers free tickets over the various routes during Spring and Fall seasons, and keep their drummers at home."

J. T. S. Young, general dealer, except liquors: "I am certainly opposed to any increase in tax on drummers—they are invaluable to merchants of all classes."

L. H. Fulcher, dealer in groceries, confections, etc., said, "I am opposed to any increase of tax on drummers. I can't go North, 'tis too expensive, and I find drummers of great benefit, especially with samples."

Wm. J. Harris, dealer in groceries, liquors, etc., I am opposed to any increase, on the contrary, I think drummers enables a merchant to keep up his stock without the expense of going North. I am a wholesale dealer, but I say let the drummers come. Thousands of our Southern men—ex-Confederate soldiers have profitable situations, which they would necessarily lose by any great increase of tax. It won't do.

E. Rosenthal, dealer in dry goods, etc.: "I am opposed to any increase of tax. I don't buy from drummers, and yet I can't see what possible harm they can do. Consumers here and at other sections do us more harm by ordering goods direct from Northern wholesale and retail establishments, from samples. We can't tax the Northern merchant who thus interferes with our trade; and I say let the tax on drummers remain, and enforce the law as it is."

A. C. Davis & Co., dry goods, etc. "We are opposed to any increase of tax. We have to buy goods, and it is very convenient for us in many instances to buy from drummers. We get lower prices, and often more liberal terms."

S. M. Warren dry goods, etc. "I believe the increase in tax would be unjust. Fifty dollars is enough. Collect that from each one, and let them sell all they can."

A. W. Rowland, druggist, &c. "I am decidedly opposed to the proposed increase of tax to $500 In fact I am somewhat opposed to $50. The larger amount would not prohibit, but create a monopoly."

"Our merchants are opposed to the increase, and they ought to be."

We have the views of several other merchants, but as the expression of opinion is similiar to the foregoing, we omit them for the present.—ED.

LINCOLN COUNTY.

Meeting of the Democratic Convention—Governor Vance for United States Senator—Judge Schenck for Associate Justice.

Correspondence of the News.

At a convention of the Democratic party of Lincoln county, held in Lincolnton on the 18th inst., the following resolutions were adopted:

"WHEREAS at a former convention held for this county, the delegates appointed to represent this county in the State convention were instructed to cast the vote of this county for the Hon. D. Schenck for Chief Justice; and whereas since said convention was held Judge Schenck's name has been withdrawn from the contest for Chief Justice; therefore be it

"Resolved, 1st. That our said delegates heretofore appointed at said convention be and they are hereby instructed to vote for the Hon. D. Schenck for Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, in said convention, and that for the other positions on the Supreme bench our delegates be uninstructed.

"Resolved, 2nd. That we, the Democratic party of Lincoln county, rejoice to see that under cruel aspersions, bitter reproaches and false accusations, Judge Schenck's fair name stands out bright, clear and untarnished; and we, his known people, declare to the people of the State of North Carolina our confidence in him as a true man, our admiration for him as a faithful and learned Judge, and our trust in him as a faithful friend and staunch supporter fo the principles upon which our party is founded."

The first of the foregoing resolutions was amended, on motion of J. F. Rinehardt, as follows, viz:

"That our said delegates be instructed to vote for the Hon. D. Schenck for Chief Justice, provided his name is before the State convention for that position, and if it is not before the convention for that position, then that our said delegates be instructed to vote for him for Associate Justice."

It was further resolved that Lincoln county, gratefully remembering the past services of our Governor, Z. B. Vance, recoguizing his eminent fitness for the position, hereby declares her preference for him for the next Senator to the Congress of the United States, and that the nominees of our party be instructed to vote for him for the said position, first, last, and at all times.

Further, resolved, that the foregoing resolutions be sent to the Raleigh News and Observer, and other Democratic papers in the State.

A. CASTREN, Chairman.

B. S. GUINN, Secretary.

What Hayes Thinks.

World's Washington Dispatch.

Statements to the effect that the President looks with unconcern upon the approaching investigation are untrue. A member of the Cabinet said to-night:

"The President has been more worried, or prehaps annoyed is a better word, over the doubts in the minds of the people as to the legality of his election than any circumstance that has occurred to effect his peace of mind since he entered the White House. The adoption of the resolution for investigation troubled him. He has said to me on several occasions that he beleived himself to have been honestly elected, but he doubted not that fully one-half of the voters of the United States honestly believed that he he is holding an office to which he was not fairly elected. He said that he should never feel unfriendly towards a political opponent who beleived him not entitled to the office of President. It has troubled Mr. Hayes to think that honest men doubted the validity of his election. He beleives, as I do, that the was fairly elected, but no man with a grain of sensitiveness in his nature could help being worried by the feeling that millions of the people doubt his title to the office that he fills"

The Caucus.

Correspondence of the News.

RALEIGH, May 25th.

Your Hickory correspondent, J. F. M., struck the nail on the head. The people should require candidates for the Legislature to abide the action of the caucus for United States Senator. We are opposed to candidates pledging their vote for any man for Senator. It is a short-sighted policy, anti-Democratic. No man knows before the Legislature convenes how many candidates we may have. They should be free to vote in caucus for the best man,

TAXING THE DRUMMERS.

The Proposition to Tax Commercial Travellers Five Hundred Dollars.

Views of the Raleigh Merchants.

We continue this morning the publication of the views of the merchants of this city representing the proposed prohibition tax of five hundred dollars on commercial travellers, known the world over as drummers.

QUESTION.

Are you in favor of or against the proposition for the State to tax drummers $500, so as to prohibit them from doing business in the State and what are your views on the subject?

ANSWERS.

Williams & Haywood, druggists, have not any opinion, it is a matter to which they have given no thought.

Wm. Simpson, druggist, is not in favor of taxing drummers, as he can order from samples and be as well suited as if he were to go north, thereby saving a good deal of money.

Pescud, Lee & Co., druggists, are not in favor of the tax; think a tax of $50 sufficient, as the benefits derived from the exhibition of samples of chemicals, drugs, &c., are great.

F. H. Heartt, druggist, is against the tax of $500, and says travelling salesmen with samples are very convenient, as they save to dealers the trouble and expense of going north to make purchases.

Wm. Woollcott, dealer in dry and fancy goods, thinks a tax of $500 too much. Mr. Woollcott is in favor of legitimate drumming, but says, for Northern drummers who sell to the cross-road trade, a tax of $1,000 would not be too large.

W. H. & R. S. Tucker, wholesale and retail dry goods,—we have not thought much about it, but it seems a very bad plan for persons to make purchases elsewhere, and expect their own merchants to live. All cities and towns are built up by the enterprise of their business men, and if purchases are made out of the State to any considerable extent, you can very readily see that there can be no prosperity among its merchants. The law requiring only a small tax from drummers seems to be more favorable to them than to home merchants.

R. B. Andrews & Co., clothiers, are opposed to retail drummers, and say if the tax of $500 could be restricted to them, it would be all right.

A. Creech, wholesale and retail dry goods, is in favor of the tax, for the reason that, as prices so often fluctuate, the present system of salesmen travelling through the State is calculated to damage and demoralize trade—merchants becoming dissatisfied; and in addition thereto thinks, as a protection to home enterprises merchants doing business here—renting houses, employing salesmen, paying city, State and county taxes, and using every effort they can, in a legitimate way, to build up the city, ought to have the preference.

J. Y. Jackson & Co., dry goods and notions, are opposed to the tax of $500, and are in favor of free trade.

Zacharias & Co., dry goods and furnishing establishment, do not favor the tax. They believe in free trade.

M. Rosenbaum and Bro., dry goods and furnishing establishment, have not formed any opinion on the subject.

D. S. Waitt & Bro., clothiers and dry goods dealers, are in favor of the tax of $500. The present system of drumming takes trade away from jobbers in this State and gives it to persons outside of the State, when goods are not any cheaper than they are sold by jobbers in this State; think it is unfair, and unfair discrimination in favor of jobbers outside of the State, as retail traders claiming to be manufacturers come into the State selling goods by sample to the injury of our retail dealers.

J. P. Gulley, wholesale and retail dry goods, is in favor of the tax. While he thinks legitimate drumming a good thing yet the tax will do good by preventing retail and irresponsible parties from placing goods. He pays a heavy tax and would like to see the tax on commercial travellers increased to $500.

Kate Southern's Sentence Commuted.

ATLANTA, GA., May the 23—Governer Colquitt to day commuted the death sentence of Mrs. Kate Southern, of Pickens County, to imprisonment in the Penitentiary for ten years. Mrs. Southern killed Narcissa Cowart, her rival, at a dance in Pickens County about eighteen months ago. An immense pressure was brought to bear on the Governor to induce him to commute the the sentence, and his decison gives the liveliest satisfaction.

THE Democrats of Lincoln county declare warmly for Gov. Vance for U. S. Senator.

THE Chapel Hill Ledger says the indications are that the attendance on commencement will far exceed that of former years.

SENATOR RANSOM has been appointed on a committee consisting of Senator Barnum, of Connecticut, Representatives Ross, of New Jersey, and John G. Thompson, of Ohio, to co-operate with the Congressional Committee in regard to the autumn Congressional elections.

WE regret to announce the death of Rev. Banister Jarvis, father of Lieutenant Governor Thos. J. Jarvis, and a very prominent minister of the N. C. Conference, M. E. Church, South. The sad event took place at Currituck C. H., on the 20th inst., after a long and painful illness.

CONGRESSMAN WADDELL has been made the recipient of a handsome silver embossed testimonial from the Post Office Aid Association of New York, in token of their high appreciation of his lecture on Morse and Maury. This excellent production has achieved for the popular representative of the third Congressional district, a wide spread reputation as a literary man and speaker.

IF you would know a man well, find out what his home-people say of him. A man's faults and foibles, as well as his virtues and the facts of his history, are rarely disguised from his neighbors. What, therefore, is said of Judge David Schenck by his own people of Lincoln county, will be accepted by the impartial enquirer after truth as testimony not to be readily overcome. Elsewhere will be found the resolutions of the Democratic Convention of that county, containing, among other things, a very flattering endorsement of Judge Schenck for Associate Justice of the Supreme Court.

THE Democrats of Wilson have set square down on independent candidates, as is indicated by the following resolution passed by the convention Wednesday, without a dissenting voice:

"Resolved, That we abide by the decision of this Convention in giving our hearty support to its nominees, and that we denounce as unworthy of public office, any man who will declare himself an independent candidate after submitting his claims to the decision of this Convention."

This is the right sort of talk. The resolution is a model for every county in the State.

THE Atlanta Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, has concluded its labors. We present this morning the proceedings of the last day. The News, in fulfilment of its promises to the public, laid daily accounts of this great church assemblage before its readers, only three days out of the whole session being missed, owing to delay in the mails and miscarriage of letters. For these excellent reports those interested in the Conference are indebted to Rev. Frank L. Reid, of Louisburg, one of the most zealous, efficient and talented among the rising young ministers of the North Carolina Conference. The News has been found fault with for devoting so much space to the proceedings of the Atlanta Conference; but we are nevertheless satisfied that what it has done in this regard is a good work, and we are always glad when it is in our power to contribute even, in the least, to the spread of religious intelligence or to the advancement of the interests of the glorious churches of our land.

OUR readers are familiar with the case of Kate Southern, the Georgia woman who was recently convicted of murder and sentenced to be hanged. Governor Colquitt has commuted the death sentence to imprisonment for ten years in the penitentiary. The action of Georgia's Chief Executive will be applauded. The published and undisputed facts of the tragedy pointed clearly to manslaughter rather than murder. She slew her rival in a moment of jealousy and rage, and under great provocation. The ends of justice in this country may be fully met without hanging women, under any circumstances.

The affidavits presented for the consideration of Governor Colquitt, make out the following case:

Kate Southern, who was a girl of modest, chaste character, loves and marries Bob Southern. She discovers that he has before marriage contracted an illicit intimacy with a handsome, fast and reckless woman of the county. She finds that through certain threats of exposure her husband is under the influence of this woman, who succeeds in carrying him to her house three days before the marriage, and seduces him away from home on the fourth night after the marriage. She learns from all sides that this woman swears that she and her husband shall have no peace or satisfaction as long as she lives, that she is circulating reports that blacken her (the young wife's) character and is carrying these report to her husband and his relatives. After being driven out of the neighborhood by this persecution, she returns for a visit, encient, nervous and worn down by epilepsy. The first night of her return she is confronted by her rival, an enemy, who tries to take charge of her husband, pulls her confidant from her lap and taking her into an ante-room, fills the ears of this friend with the vilest abuse of her character. This friend returns and tells her what has been said, and in a few moments, while she is smarting under this scandalous attack and fearful of the future this woman comes to her in the presence of her husband, and insults her by flaunting herself in front of her and saying, "Now Kate Southern. I am ready for you!"

She jumps up to confront her insulter she is caught by the hair and thrown down a struggle ensues in which Kate Southern's sister takes part, and before the bystanders can interfere Nancy Cowart is killed.

This is the story.

The Choice of the People.

The Democratic Convention of Wilson county, which met on Wednesday of the week just closed, adopted the following resolution:

"Resolved, That Z. B. Vance is the choice of Wilson county for U. S. Senator, and the Democrats of this county will hail with pleasure his election to that position by the next Legislature."

This resolution is a simple though very emphatic expression of the sentiments of the Democratic party of Wilson county.

The Wilson Advance has the following pertinent and just reflections upon the action of the convention:

"We think it eminently proper that such expression should have been made, for if there is any man in the State that has a pre-eminent claim to any position in the gift of his people, whether we regard his past services and sacrifices, or his exalted fitness, that man is Zebulon B. Vance for United States Senator.

"We notice with surprise that some of our Democratic cotemporaries object to any expression on the part of the people for United States Senator, upon the ground that such action is liable to produce confusion and division in our ranks. We can see no grounds for apprehension on that score. We would that not only the sentiments of every county, but of every township in the State, could be expressed upon this important question. If that could be done, there would be no danger of misrepresenting the will of the people, unless members of the Legislature should set at defiance the choice of their constituents.

"The position that a majority of a caucus being pledged to one candidate destroys its integrity is entirely untenable. Such a position would break up every convention in every county in the State. If such a position were admitted the people could not instruct their delegates, and would have to trust their principles and their preferences to chance. The people have a right to a choice. They have a right to express that choice, and their representatives are honorably bound to carry out their expressed will. Nor is that all, when that choice has been endorsed by a majority of the party, every obligation, moral and political, should compel the minority to yield to the will of the majority.

"Principles are everything, but they cannot be made available without organization, and the Democrat who opposes the organization of his party, and goes against the nominees, without some great and overpowering reason that can be seen by all, cannot be held blameless. The party that disregards the sacred obligations of organization cannot be expected to maintain its principles. Its majorities will be as powerless as the mist before the sun when minorities can with impunity combine with the enemy and destroy the acknowledged will of the party. For these reasons we contend that the choice of the people should be made clearly known wherever practicable, and that choice should command obedience and respect from all good Democrats."

The County Conventions.

In many counties of the State, Democratic conventions were held yesterday, some for the nomination of legislative and county tickets, some for the fixing of a day in the future for the holding of such conventions, some for the selection of delegates to the Congressional and Judicial conventions, and all for the appointment of delegates to the State Convention. One of the largest and most enthusiastic of all these assemblages of the true and the faithful was that which convened in Statesville. Gov. Vance was endorsed for the United States Senate. There are in all this broad land no more patriotic, intelligent and sterling conservatives than the Democracy of Iredell county. They stand with the very first in the State. Such an expression from such a community is a high compliment, indeed, and in every respect worthy the distinguished subject whose great popularity and services to North Carolina evoked it.

Hon. T. A. Nicholson is the choice of Iredell for the Senate. This wheelhorse of conservatism has served his country in the Senate before, and most acceptably. He was a member of the last Senate. He will be ably supported by Mr. Click, and Dr. McCorkle, the nominees for the House, both excellent men.

The most exciting feature of the convention was the struggle between Mr. Robbins and Mr. Armfield for Congress. The triumph of the latter yesterday at Statesville, though not absolutely decisive, gives him the advantage over his distinguished and able rival. It is understood that Ashe, Alleghany, Alexander and Wilkes are for Col. Armfield, leaving Rowan, Davie, Yadkin, Forsythe and Surry to Mr. Robbins. The basis of representation in the Congressional Convention will be, we are informed, the representation of the respective counties in the General Assembly. This would give the two aspirants, in the counties above named, six votes apiece, leaving to Iredell county the balance of power. This county having declared unanimously for Col. Armfield, the prospect is that the vote in the Convention will stand eight to six, which would secure the nomination of Armfield over Robbins, unless the two-thirds rule be adopted. Mr. Robbins has made a splendid representative; he has a deep hold upon the affections and esteem of his people; and he may yet win the race over his brilliant, popular and powerful rival for the honors of the Seventh Congressional District.

The Pender county Democrats demand a greater showing to farmers in choosing representatives to the Legislature and Congress. This is right. It is very certain that the legal profession, ever one of the chiefest bulwarks of defence for our free institutions, will be well represented. But to insure the best legislation it is essential that the material interests of the country be also well represented. All over the State, farmers and business men are coming more prominently forward in the management of political affairs than ever before in the history of North Caroiina. This is one of the happiest signs of the times.

BEAUTY:

OR THE

Secret of a Fair Face.

AN ITEM OF INTREST TO EVERY LADY WHO DESIRES TO BE MORE BEAUTIFUL THAN SHE NOW IS.

Unfortunately not one woman in a hundred, subjected to the whims of an American climate possesses that basis and starting point of real beauty—a pure and clear complexion.

What nature has thus denied, art must be called upon to furnish.

It can be done; it is done daily. Prof. W. E. Hagan placed beauty within the reach of every unblessed daughter of Eve when he discovered that surprising article known in fashionable circles as the true secret of beauty, and called

MAGNOLIA BALM

The MAGNOLIA BALM is a sure device for creating a pure and blooming complexion.

It conceals all natural blemishes in the most surprising and effective manner.

It removes all roughness eruptions, redness blotches, freckles, and tan with magical power.

It drives away all evidences of fatigue and excitement.

It makes the plainest face beautiful.

It gives the complexion a dazzling purity and makes the neck, face, and arms appear graceful, rotund, and plump.

It makes a matron of 35 or 40 look not more than 20 years old, and changes the rustic maiden into a cultivated city belle.

The Magnolia Balm removes all blemishes and conceals every drawback to beauty; and while it is as harmless as water, it is so lifelike in its effects that the closest observer cannot detect its use.

Ladies who want to make themselves attractive can make an absolute certainty of it by using HAGAN'S MAGNOLIA BALM, and we know of no other way. It is the cheapest preparation in the world, all things considered, and may be had at any drug store.

Powerful Engines.

A Washington Paper.

"The great Corliss engine," of Centennial fame, is still mentioned by the press and generally regarded by the public as a synonym for all that is powerful in steam machinery. The fact is, that the engine in question was neither great nor strong, compared with others that have been built in this country. The Navy Department, about fourteen years ago, constructed four pairs of "hundred inch" engines, each of which has more than six times as much power as the Corliss engine that propelled the Centennial machinery. One pair of these steam leviathans is now on the United States steamer Wampanoag, the fastest steamer afloat. Another pair, built in the Washington navy-yard, at a cost of about $250,000, has never been put into any ship.

Pee Dee Politics.

Pee Dee Herald.

We've been travelling around lately; attending courts, &c.; we have made enquiries and asked questions, with a view to informing ourselves as to the wishes and opinions of the people upon the approaching campaign. The sentiment is almost unanimous in favor of Mr. Ashe for a seat on the Supreme Court Bench, a majority being favorable to him as Chief Justice. As to the Congressional nomination it seems to be a fixed fact that Col. Steele is to have it without opposition. For Solicitor Mr. Lockhart's chances are good, though there are so many aspirants for the place, that it is hard to make any safe guesses. Anson and Richmond, with one or two of the lower counties solid for him on first ballot, will most likely secure his nomination on the second.

Southern Development.

New York Coal Trade Journal.

The building of the Buchanan and Clifton Forge railroad, Virginia, will probably be completed in this year, or early in 1879. This road will enable the furnaces on the line of the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad, now making cold-short irons, to reach the fine neutral specular ores of Nelson county, and vice versa. The latter ore fields can be supplied with West Virginia coke, which must stimulate the building of new furnaces among them for the utilization of these valuable ores now lying comparatively useless. This railroad link unites the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad at Covington with the James river and Kanawha canal at Buchanan. It will be about 23 miles in length.

Out of Tune.

When the tones of a musical instrument become harsh and discordant, we say it is "out of tune." The same may be said of that far more wonderful and complicated piece of mechanism, the human structure, when it becomes disordered. Not only actual disease, but those far more common causes, overwork, mental anxiety, and fast living, may impair its vigor and activity. The best remedy for a partial collapse of the vital energies, from these as from other causes, is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which is at the same time an agreeable and mind cheering cordial, and the best possible invigorant in all cases of debility. It is an incomparable stomachic and anti-bilious medicine, eradicates fever and ague, and prevents subsequent attacks. It remedies with certainty and thoroughness bowel and kidney complaints, dyspepsia, nervousness, rheumatic troubles, and many other bodily ailments. It also counteracts influences which predispose to disease.

A CARD.

To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a recipt that will cure you, free of charge. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the Rev. JOSEPH T. INMAN, Station D, Bible House, New York City. oct25dawly

AGRICULTURAL LIME.

To The Cotton Growers of North Carolina.

The Commissioner of Agriculture having decided that I cannot have an Agency in your State for the sale of this cheap and valuable Fertilizer, without paying a tax of $500—which I cannot do without materially advancing the price, I solicit your orders for it, which will be promptly filled on the following terms on board cars in Richmond:

$12 Per Ton Cash, or $15 Per

TON for an approved acceptance on Raleigh, Charlotte, Wilmington, Petersburg, Norfolk, or Richmond, payable on the 1st of November next, or at 8 months from date.

I respectfully refer you to Messrs. J. J. Thomas, Raleigh; J. W. O'Neil, Clayton and others who sold it last spring, and to the various farmers who used it, who say it makes as much cotton as fertilizers costing 3 or 4 times as much. Address,

A. S. LEE,

I have tried the Xanthine and found it to be all it claims in restoring hair to its natural color and removing dandruff. W. W. BENNETT.

(From Rev. Mr. Cameron, Minister of the Presbyterian Church South.)

MOSSY CREEK, Tenn., August 22, 1876.

Xanthine Co., Richmond, Va.:

I have used the Xanthine now for three years, and have induced others to try it, and have never known it to fail in accomplishing all you claim for it. It is an excellent tonic a pleasant dressing, removing and preventing dandruff and all unpleasant itching, promoting and preserving the natural growth and color of the hair, and rendering it glossy and pliable. I confidently, cheerfully and knowingly recommend it.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

——A drummers' license has been issued to Daniel Miller & Co., Baltimore, Md.

——A drummers' license has been issued to J. & P. Coats, Pawtucket, Rhode Island.

——The beautiful flowers of the Magnolia Grandiflora now fill the air with their fragrance.

——In the Executive office a requisition has been received from the Governor of South Carolina, for a fugitive from jutice.

——Regular meeting of Wm. G. Hill Lodge to-morrow evening. The attendance of brethren at 8 o'clock sharp, is desired.

——Quite a number of the excursionists were compelled to hold over yesterday, having been left by the train to Weldon.

——There will be a match game of base-ball between the "Juniors" and "Side-abouts," on next Tuesday evening, at Nash Square.

——And now cometh a man and sayeth that there is much truth in the statement that a policeman did shoot at three fleeing turkey thieves.

——It is said that a larger area of grain will be harvested in the Southern States this spring and summer than at any harvest season since 1865.

——The funeral of Mr. Bonner, who died on Friday, took place from his residence yesterday. The remains were interred in the old cemetery.

——Arrangements have been made so that those who attend the Normal School at the University will have access to the fine Society Libraries.

Hon. L. L. Polk, Commissioner of Agriculture for North Carolina, will address the citizens of Iredell county at Statesville, on Tuesday, the 4th day of June.

——The jury in the case of Alfred Whitaker, after being out two days and nights, were unable to agree upon a verdict, and so were discharged yesterday morning.

——At the last meeting of the Board of Aldermen, Alderman Ellison moved to reduce the pay of policemen to $35 per month. Too little, entirely, for serviceable men.

——Our thoroughfares wore a gayer and livelier appearance than usual yesterday, owing to the number of excursionists. Much shopping was done, and the merchants, doubtless, reaped a harvest.

——It appears that the fruit, particularly peaches, has been seriously injured by the late great storms. Reports from sections of this county state that the trees have been stripped of fruit.

——Some one asks whether half the drummers who visit our city can exhibit the license required by law, and suggests that greater vigilance on the part of those officers in charge of the matter would probably be commendable.

——If the new post-office is going to stand unoccupied, let it at least be in some measure protected from the ravages of the weather. The torn window protectors let in the sunlight and the rain, thus exposing the beautiful polished wood-work to what may perhaps be damage almost irreparable. This matter of protection should receive prompt attention.

——We learn that while too hastily attempting to board the returning excursion train yesterday afternoon, a colored woman was thrown by the moving cars, having lost her hold, upon a pile of railway sleepers, thereby being so injured as to necessitate her remaining here. It was at first reported that she had broken a limb, but this, it appears is not the case.

——Much complaint is made, and properly, of the set of miserable loafers and disreputable colored men and women, who daily crowd the corridor of the Court House, as well as the Court room itself. Can they not be dispensed with. Nuisances often become unbearable. Let the officers in charge of the building see that they find no place therein for such disgraceful conduct.

Excursion from Weldon.

A special train came into the city yesterday from Weldon, filled with about five hundred excursionists from that place, and other points along the R. & G. Railway. The excursionists were of all colors and sizes. After the usual manner of their kind, they first visited the State House, whose colossal proportions and beauty of architecture made a deep impression. The day was to all appearances spent pleasantly, sight seeing, street rambles etc. In the afternoon the party returned.

Movement of Cotton in Raleigh.

	Bales.
Receipts for week ending May 24th, 1878,	417 "
Receipts for same week last year,	210 "
Increase in receipts for week this year,	207 "
Whole receipts from 1st September to date,	43,614 "
Whole receipts same time last year,	42,286 "
Increase in receipts this year to date,	1,328 "

As will be seen our receipts have been heavier this week with an active market and good demand for all offering, we quote the market 10⅜ to 10¼. middlings.

The Last Storm.

The storm of Friday afternoon, like the preceeding one, proved disastrous to the growing crops, as well as to the trees and fences, in many section of our county. In Middle Creek township it raged with fury. Trees were turned up, fences leveled with the ground, while the young cotton etc., was literally washed out of existeance. The great moisture of the ground interferes greatly with the work of replanting cotton. So far as heard from there has been no loss of life, though the wind blew a hurricane and the lightening and thunder were terrific.

Base Ball Challenge.

We have been requested to publish the following from the Goldsboro boys, who seem desirous of getting even with our base-ballists for their late defeat. Should a challenge be sent we may look for the first real match game of the season:

We, the undersigned, have organized a base-ball club, known as the "Haymakers," and are ready to receive a challenge from the "Junior" club of Raleigh, who say they will play any picked nine in Wayne county.

Peter Gutberlet, Captain; A. Prempert, R. L. Prempert, Samuel C. Smith, John B. Hunt, L. Missenschmidt, John Dyer, Lawrence Washington, E. W. Edwards, T. R. Gardner.

Personals.

Rev. W. S. Black, of the Edenton Street Methodist Church returned yesterday from the General Conference, and will to-day occupy his pulpit.

Rev. Frank L. Reid, of the N. C. Conference, passed through the city, yesterday on his way home from the Atlanta Conference.

Robt. M. Dunlop, Esq., formerly of Petersburg, now of New York, is in the city. His many acquaintances are glad to see him.

Donald W. Bain, Esq., has returned from Atlanta, Ga., where he has been in attendance on the session of the Methodist General Conference.

Dr. S. G. Ward, of Franklin, is in the city.

Township Convention.

The Democratic Township Convention met yesterday in Metropolitan Hall and was called to order by W. H. Bledsoe Chairman Township Executive Committee.

On motion it was ordered that every Democrat in good standing should consider himself a delegate to the county convention to assemble on June the 1st, 1878, and that when this convention adjourn it do so to assemble in the Mayor's office at 10 o'clock a. m., June 1st for consultation, and every Democratic voter urged to put in his attendance at that time or hereafter forever hold his peace.

W. H. BLEDSOE, Chairman.
H. H. Roberts, Secretary.

Revenue Collections.

During the week ending Saturday, the following collections were made at the office of Internal Revenue in this city:

Monday,	$ 8,920.18;
Tuesday,	384.28;
Wednesday,	302.80;
Thursday,	8,103.22;
Friday,	1,784.60;
Saturday,	2,075.90;
Total,	$21,570.98.

Convicts Sent West.

On Friday last the authorities of the State Penitentiary sent up to the mountains 20 convicts, to work on the Western R. R. beyond Henry's.

The authorities are waiting to hear from the parties in charge of the Angola Bay Canal, on which work it is designed to employ convicts. Notice has been sent to them by Col. Hicks, of his readiness to send convicts as soon as the quarters for their accommodation are completed.

Wake Criminal Court.

Court met yesterday at 10 a. m., His Honor Judge Strong presiding. The day was consumed in arguments on the case of Ed. G. Haywood, Jr., and Louis H. Haywood. Assault and battery. Submission. The argument was with a view to mitigate the judgment of the Court. Judgment reserved until Monday.

Court adjourned at 4 p. m., until Monday.

Committed to Jail.

Matthew Bennett, colored, was on yesterday brought in from Forestville, and committed to jail. He was charged with having broken open a smoke-house and stolen meat therefrom.

Ives Brooks, another ebony-hued individual, was also lodged in the "Nowell House," having been guilty of the crime of striking a woman, He was thus incarcerated for failure to give a bond of $25 for his appearance at Criminal Court.

Calling a Pastor.

To-morrow there will be meeting of the congregation of the First Presbyterian church, for the purpose of calling a permanent pastor. Rev. C. R. Vaughan, the present incumbent, declines to renew his present engagement, which expires on the 1st of August next.

Specimens of Fish.

Mr. Thomas Taylor, of New Berne, has sent to the Departmsnt of Agriculture several specimens of fish caught in the waters of the Neuse. These fish have been stuffed and properly mounted, for examination. Mr. Taylor will soon send other specimens.

Pic-Nicin Prospectu.

It has been decided that the Sabbath School of the First Presbyterian Church have their pic-nic at an early day. It is probable that some point on the R. & G. Railway will be selected as the place.

Appointments.

Gov. Vance on yesterday reappointed the following as Commissioners of Affidavits for this state: Harris Stuckey, Louisville, Ky.; Joseph T. Atkinsor, Baltimore, Md.

Religious Notes.

Dr. Pritchard will occupy his pulpit at the Salisbury street Baptist church, morning evening. In the afternoon, at 4 o'clock, he will deliver an address on Sunday schools, at Crawford's schoolhouse near the new Fair Grounds.

Market Report.

Mr. C. Battle Fowler, keeper of the Metropolitan Market reports that during the week just past the followwing were exposed for sale.

Beeves, 56; lambs, 101; sausage, 970 lbs.; hogs, 52; fish, 620 bunches. Chickens have sold at from 20 to 25cts. and have been plentiful; butter was abundant, at 20 to 25cts., eggs, at 12½ to 15cts. One lot of beef was condemned yesterday, as unwholesome. Country produce has been brought in in great quantities.

Mr. Fowler reports all quiet along the market-house lines, save for some few sore-heads who have failed to get an office. He says they must take back seats until next May, when they shall be satisfied.

The New Band.

The brass band of the Raleigh Light Infantry are now practising thrice a week at the armory. The material of which it is composed is good, and their musical talent of a high order. While the band will be attached to "Capt. Cameron's Own," yet our citizens will find them obliging and ready to furnish good music on reasonable terms. They propose also to do something long promised, but never performed, that is to give some music in our square, etc. They have purchased their own instruments.

The Waller House.

Any allusion to the merits of the city hostelry is totally unnecessary, since the fact of its good fare and accommodations is patent. The best evidences of the goodness of anything is shown by the appreciation of the public. In the case of the Waller House the truth of this is borne out. The fare is good, the meals served in the best style, while attentive, trained servants are always ready to minister to the wants of guests.

A Revenue Raide.

A raid has been made upon the illict distilleries in Granville county, led by deptuty Collector Betts and Rogers, accompanied by others. They succeeded in breaking up 13 illicit distilleries. About 5000 gallons of mash and beer were destroyed, also some meal stands and tubs.

Mayor's Court.

Ives Brooks, negro, was arraigned on a charge of assult and battery. He was for that offence tined $5, and costs.

A Frightful Kerosene Accident,

Kerosene has again scored a victim, this time at the residence of Mr. Van Meter, in Lombeton street, Trenton, N. J. Mrs. Van Meter was, a few evenings ago, filling a kerosene lamp, when it exploded, covering the lady and her child with the burning fluid. Careless of herself, the mother set to work to extinguish the flames that were burning the child. With frantic energy she tore from the little one its clothing, and catching up her underskirt, as yet untouched by the flames, she wrapped it round the babe and smothered the fire; then, wrapped in flames, she rushed from the house and ran for assistance to a neighbor. A gentleman, whose attention was attracted to her as she crossed the street, ran to meet her with a drugget, and wrapped it about her. Before the fire was extinguished, however, she broke away, maddened by terror lest her child should again be exposed to danger from any burning article. Her husband, who had put out the fire, met her at the door, and with the assistance of his neighbors, tried to catch her. She rushed past them, and entering the house, fell insensible upon the floor. The flames were then extinguished. It is feared she will die.—N. Y. Times.

Pratt's Astral Oil does not explode or take fire; absolutely safe.

Something Worth Attention.

Consigners of county produce should ship to A. C. Sanders & Co., because they are the only commission merchants in Raleigh. They do not buy at all on their own account, but make prompt returns, at the same prices they sell at, which are the highest this market affords.

Chances For Bargains.

As a place where the best of good bargains may be made by both farmers and city people, we cordially recommend the establishment of Mr. W. A Myatt, on Martin street. In the store may be found all the various things requisite and necessary in the way of farm supplies and groceries of all kinds.

Attention.

All the members of the Junior Debating Society are earnestly requested to be present at the regular weekly meeting to-night, at 8 o'clock promptly. An unusually good subject is open for discussion, and a lively time is expected. G. H. GORMAN, Sec'y.

Wood!

I will sell, for cash, a consigned lot of wood, delivered at any house within the city limits, at the following reduced figures: Good oak at $3.00 per cord; woods pine at $2.75 per cord; field pine, seasoned, at $2.50 per cord. Also 100,000 brick, hard and salmon, cheap.

Obituary.

Franklin Harris was born July 23rd, 1796, and died April 7th, 1878. By his death the country sustains a great loss, and Methodism has one devoted follower less. His life is worthy of precious memory. He was the third ancestor of American nativity in regular descent from an old English family, whose lineage is traceable through a period of more than two centuries, and that is distinguished for the number of worthy men embraced in its descendants. He ennobled his parentage, and with increased lustre transmitted the legacy of an honored ancestry to his posterity.

Mr. Harris was reared in Montgomery county, North Carolina. He was twice married. His first wife was a Miss Moss, daughter of John Bushrudd Moss. His second wife was Mrs. Jane W. Calloud, who still survives him. Of his first marriage were born five children; one daughter, who died in early life, and four sons, who became distinguished at the Bar, in the Industry, and in mercantile life. One son, a Confederate Colonel, fell fighting gallantly in battle. In 1825 he was converted and joined the Methodist church. From that time to his death he was a living epistle of the christian graces. His home was the abode of generous hospitality to ministers and laymen. The poor shared beneficence; the afflicted enjoyed his sympathy and kindness, and wherever God's work was to be performed, there he was found, the minister of good. He filled the offices of the church with humility and fidelity; bore its burdens; loved and enjoyed its religious privileges, and when he died "a prince and great man fell that day in Israel."

In the social relations his life was an exemplification of christian character. As a citizen he was eminent for piety and patriotism; liberal in his views; kind and charitable to his neighbors, and a zealous supporter of all educational enterprises.

In politics he was a Whig of the Henry Clay type, but declined earnest and often repeated solicitations to seek political preferment, rather choosing the attractive life of a planter, surrounded by affluence and the odor of good deeds and a holy life. He consecrated his lice to God; his death was a glorious triumph of Christian faith, and the world is better for his having lived in it. God bless his memory and the influence he left behind. JAS. W. REID.

Opinion of Dr. R. S. Steuart, President Maryland Hospital, Baltimore:

"I have used Colden's Liebig's Liquid Extract of Beef and Tonic Invigorator for more than a year, and recommend it as one of the most efficient preparations I have ever met with. It combines the virtues of food and tonic in a remarkable way." Williams & Haywood, Agents.

LOTTERY.

L. A. S. L.

UNPRECEDENTED ATTRACTION! OVER HALF A MILLION DISTRIBUTED

Louisiana State Lottery Company.

This Institution was regularly incorporated by the Legislature of the State, for Educational and charitable purposes, in 1868, with a capital of $1,000,000, to which it has since added a reserve fund of $350,000. Its grand single number distributions will take place monthly on the second Tuesday. It never scales or postpones. Look at the following distribution:
